

Nearly there! Another busy week with Y6 leavers mass, the Year 5 & 6 production and our end of year mass. Children visited their new classrooms and met their new teachers and we had a visit from the new reception children. Have a great weekend!

Class teachers for September

Most class teachers will be remaining in their current year groups for the next academic year. The list is as follows:

| | |
|------------|--|
| Reception: | Mrs Gray / Mrs Charlesworth |
| Year 1: | Mrs Conroy / Mrs Hughes |
| Year 2: | Mrs Julie Moloney / Mrs Simone Lindsay |
| Year 3: | Miss Zographou |
| Year 4: | Mr Stanley |
| Year 5: | Mrs Wright / Mrs Tuffrey/Mrs Membrino |
| Year 6: | Mrs Tuffrey / Mrs Luke |

We will be welcoming Mrs Julie Moloney and Mrs Simone Lindsay as teachers of year 2. Mrs Moloney has previously worked at the school and is returning and Mrs Lindsay has been covering Year 2 this past half term.

Sadly we will be saying goodbye to Miss Jones who has been working as a teaching assistant in Year 2. Teaching assistant deployment for next year will be announced in due course. We wish Miss Jones all the best for her future!

Year 5 and 6 performance

We were certainly transported back to the Wild Wild West in the fabulous performance of Ye Hah - a wonderfully wild musical comedy. The children entertained us with fantastic singing, dancing, jokes and acting. As always, it takes an awful lot of effort from the teaching and wider staff team to prepare a performance like this so thank you to all involved in making it such a great show.

Croydon Talent Festival

Congratulations to Adrian in year 3 who took part in the Croydon Talent Festival this week. He was proud to take part and had a great time there! Well done Adrian!

Achievement

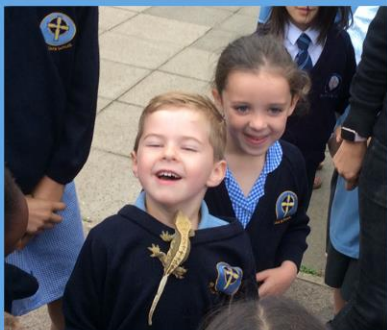

A range of achievements this week, including swimming, taekwando, gaelic football, athletics and football.

This Friday, St Aidan's children were very excited when Eviee Huggett (year 6) walked into school accompanied by her baby goat Vinny and her gecko, Yoshi, while Caitlin Mulligan (also Year 6) arrived with Eviee's corn snake, Luna.

Year 6 and Reception were very privileged to be able to stroke Vinny, hold Yoshi and even pat Luna! Thank you Eviee!
