For the last few weeks of term, we are going to be using Mr Stink as the class novel. For those of you who have been in school, you now have a copy of the book. Those children who were unable to attend school may have their own copy. If not, the film is being shown on BBC Iplayer using the following link.

Mr Stink

As we know from the first two chapters of Mr Stink, Chloe is having a torrid time at the hands of Rosamund Pike, the school bully. What advice could you give her?

Chloe could write to an agony aunt about her problems.

An agony aunt is someone who writes a column in a magazine or newspaper specifically designed to answer letters from people with problems. The image presented was originally of an older woman providing comforting advice and maternal wisdom, hence the name 'aunt'.

The agony aunt answers readers' letters on personal problems. Sometimes the author is in fact a team of people who work together.

Look at the Chloe's problem below

Dear Deirdre,

My name is Chloe and I'm 12. My life at home is a misery. I feel like I don't fit in anywhere and I just want to run away. My mother, who gave up her job in a beauty salon to be a Member of Parliament, is only interested in her own career. My sister, who is sneaky and treacherous, is always trying to get me into trouble.

I just can't take it anymore. I have met a tramp, who is called Mr Stink, who lives on the streets and I want to do the same. Please help me.

Task

Write a response to Chloe. What advice could you give her? Who would you advise her to talk to?
